KTA Waikoloa Village Store Director

It is hard to believe 2018 is halfway over and Independence Day is upon us. We have everything you need for your family gatherings, whether you're grilling outside or avoiding the sun and enjoying your creative hot dogs indoors (pg.3).

Make sure you enjoy summer's bounty, not just on the 4th of July. You can 'eat the rainbow' all season long with the freshest fruits and vegetables you can find that didn't come from your own tree or garden (pg.43).

Reusable bags are very popular and are a great way to live sustainably. Did you know the very first paper bag machine was patented in 1852? (pg.65).

A song from "Porgy and Bess," tells us, "Summertime, and the livin' is easy." Raise your hand if you're as busy as ever. Then, read a little suggestion about being good to yourself, if even for just a few minutes. (pg.55).

We hope to serve you soon and help make your life easier, because you're someone special every day at KTA.

Adam Tabura

Chef Adam Tabura, who grew up on Lana'i and whose Aloha Plate food truck won the Food Network's national "Great Food Truck Race" in 2013, says he always keeps it as real as possible. For the former executive chef at Ruth's Chris Steak House, The Westin Maui and Kona Village Resort, that means staying true to creative local cooking that's also "simple, clean and more 'ono than 'ono!"

The recipes within are provided as suggestions only as part of our service to customers and are intended for use by persons having appropriate technical skill, at their own discretion and risk. Hot Diggity Dog!

Eating hot dogs on Independence Day may not be required by law, but it sure seems necessary.

With the low-sodium, low-fat, Kosher, vegetarian and even vegan versions of “tube steaks” now available, just about everybody can partake in this American tradition. The variety of doughs in the refrigerated case at KTA Super Stores present all kinds of possibilities.

WRAP IT: Twists on tradition can also be fun, like making a pig-in-a-blanket by wrapping a dog in pre-made dough sheets or puff pastry. Cut dough in strips to coil around your favorite hot dogs. The pastry dough can be sprinkled with your favorite spices or herbs and Parmesan cheese before the dog gets rolled up in it, for an extra flavor boost. Make them super-spicy or mild and herbaceous. Slit the dogs down the middle and stuff them for an ooey-gooney cheesy result – just make sure to line your baking sheets with parchment paper and keep an eye on them in the oven.

WEAVE IT: Lay the dough strips out on baking parchment like stripes, then fold back every other one. Set a hot dog down vertically across the strips and lay the folded strips over it. Fold back the alternating dough strips, and add another hot dog. Keep going until a lattice has been created. Bake according to dough directions, serve with your favorite condiments and await the compliments.

Spaghetti Squash

with Sundried Tomato Butter

Prepared by Chef Adam Tabura

Visit ktasuperstores.com or KTA Kitchens on for recipe videos and more!

Spaghetti Squash with Sundried Tomato Butter

- 1 lb. unsalted butter, softened pg.54
- 3 tbsp. Thai basil, divided
- ¼ cup sundried tomatoes, bottled in oil, julienned pg.9
- 1 lemon, zested and juiced
- 2 tbsp. garlic, minced
- 3 tbsp. Italian parsley, finely chopped, divided
- 2 tbsp. Parmesan cheese, finely grated, divided
- 1½ lbs. spaghetti squash, whole
- ¼ cup olive oil, divided pg.18
- Hawaiian sea salt, finely crushed
- black pepper, finely ground pg.15
- lemon slices, sautéed

In a mixing bowl, combine the butter, 2 tbsp. Thai basil, sundried tomatoes, lemon juice and zest, garlic, 2 tbsp. Italian parsley and 1 tbsp. Parmesan cheese. Form the compound butter into a block and wrap well in parchment paper. Label and date your package and place into the freezer.

Preheat oven to 350°F. Cut squash in half lengthwise and discard the seeds. Rub the inside of each half of the squash with 1 tbsp. olive oil and season with salt and pepper. Place the squash onto a parchment paper-lined sheet pan, skin side up and roast in the oven for 10 to 12 minutes, or until tender. Shred with a fork. Cool until easy to handle. Using a long fork, scrape the squash to make thin strands that resemble spaghetti noodles. Place in a bowl, then into the refrigerator to cool.

Add 1 tbsp. olive oil to a large sauté pan over medium-high heat. Add the chilled spaghetti squash and cook for 1 to 2 minutes. Add 1 tbsp. frozen compound butter and sauté until everything comes together; season to taste with salt and pepper. Do not overcook as the butter will separate if the pan is too hot.

Serve hot, garnished with sautéed lemon slices and 1 tbsp. each chopped parsley, Thai basil and Parmesan cheese. Enjoy this dish with a glass of pinot grigio.

Nature's Summer Bounty

Some of the earliest and happiest food memories are about reveling in fresh, summer fruits.

They would burst with flavor and juices that would run down faces and hands as they were eaten with joyful abandon.

Of Hawai'i's popular summer mango varieties for instance, the Excel, Haden, Mapulehu and Rapoza generally peak in June, while the Pirie peaks in July and the Gouveia can peak in July or August.

Many of us on Hawai'i island are fortunate to have fruit trees, or to have family members, friends, neighbors and co-workers with prolific trees and sharing hearts. For those of us not so blessed, we still have KTA Super Stores and a wide selection of locally grown fruits in a rainbow of colors.

Healthy diet-supporters encourage us to "eat the rainbow," and you need look no further than the produce section to find ways to do just that. Here's a memory key and some ideas: ROYGBIV (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, violet).

Red: Lychee and tomatoes (it's a fruit, remember?). Orange: Oranges, papayas. Yellow: Bananas, certain mangoes. Green: Apples, kiwi. Puzzled about blue and violet? Blueberries are bluish-purple because of the anthocyanins they contain. Anthocyanins, which have many health benefits, are also behind the purple color of taro and Okinawan and Moloka'i sweet potatoes.

Chilled Crab & Taegu Long Rice

Prepared by Chef Adam Tabura

Visit ktasuperstores.com or KTA Kitchens on for recipe videos and more!

Chilled Crab & Taegu Long Rice

- 7.75 oz. bean thread or long rice noodles
- 2 tsp. canola oil pg.16
- 1 tbsp. light sesame oil
- 1 cup imitation crab, shredded pg.46
- ½ tbsp. toasted sesame seeds
- ½ cup Japanese cucumber, seeded, julienned
- 2 tbsp. rice vinegar
- ½ cup taegu
- 1 tbsp. mirin
- ½ cup green onion, sliced thin on bias, divided
- ½ tbsp. light brown sugar
- 1 tsp. ginger root juice
- ½ cup bean sprouts
- salt pg.15
- ¼ cup watercress, tender tops only
- pepper pg.15
- 1 tsp. black sesame seeds
- 1 Hawaiian chili pepper, minced, optional

Place bean thread noodle in boiling water until al dente, about 2 minutes. Strain and chill until cool to the touch.

In a medium bowl, combine the sesame oil, sesame seeds, rice vinegar, mirin, brown sugar, ginger root juice, salt and pepper to taste and chili pepper (if using). Whisk to combine until smooth, then slowly pour in the canola oil while continuing to whisk.

Add the crab, cucumber, taegu, ¼ cup green onion, bean sprouts and watercress; toss lightly to combine. Add in the noodles.

Just before serving, toss the noodles in the dressing. Garnish with black sesame seeds and sliced green onion if desired and enjoy with a nice cold lager beer.

Lemon Basil Chicken Breast

Prepared by Chef Adam Tabura

Visit ktasuperstores.com or KTA Kitchens on for recipe videos and more!

Lemon Basil Chicken Breast

- 1½ lbs. chicken breast, skinless pg.49
- 2 lemons, zested and juiced
- 1 tbsp. basil, finely minced
- ½ tsp. Italian parsley, finely minced
- ½ tsp. garlic, minced
- 1 tsp. mirin
- 3 tbsp. olive oil pg.18
- 1 tbsp. granulated onion
- ½ tsp. garlic salt
- ½ tsp. chili garlic paste
- 1 tsp. honey
- Hawaiian salt
- black pepper pg.15

Cut chicken on the bias into 1" pieces to ensure the marinade coats it evenly. In a small bowl, combine the lemon juice and zest, basil, parsley, garlic, mirin, olive oil, granulated onion, garlic salt, chili garlic paste and honey.

Place the chicken into a large zip top bag and pour in the marinade. Seal the bag and place in refrigerator for 24 hours.

Preheat oven to 350°F. Remove the marinated chicken from the zip top bag and place onto a parchment paper-lined sheet pan. Lightly season the chicken with salt and pepper.

Roast chicken for 12 to 15 minutes or until the chicken is cooked through to 165°F; do not overcook. Rest the chicken for 2 to 3 minutes and serve hot, garnished with lemon and basil.

Enjoy this healthy and delicious meal with a chilled beer or natural fruit punch.

Life can be so busy! Go here; do this; finish that; get the kids ready to go to hula, or soccer, or paddling or baseball.

What about time for yourself?

Special treats can be pure, simple and free, or close to it. Unplug, pack a picnic lunch, slather on the sunscreen, grab a big, floppy sunhat and enjoy a public park with wide open green spaces.

No matter where you live on Hawai'i island, you're not far from a beautiful view, or a quiet spot where you can feel the breeze; take deep, cleansing breaths; relax; focus and recharge.

Surely you've heard the phrase, "Take time to stop and smell the roses." It is great advice, reminding us to take time out of our busy schedules and simply soak in the beauty around us.

Give yourself as long as you can, even if it is just 20 minutes. You'll know you have given yourself enough time if you realize your shoulders have dropped an inch or more.

Once you pick up your mobile device again and unlock the screen, schedule another session of "me time" in a few days, or a week and make it a regular appointment.

Paper or Plastic?

Paper bags are ubiquitous and for the most part, we don't even give them much thought.

It was in 1852 that American inventor Francis Wolle got a patent for a machine that made paper bags. For more than a century since then, paper bags for groceries and other shopping became something consumers took for granted.

In the tumultuous circa-1960s America, the ecological movement raised concerns. Acreage was being stripped of trees — which are crucial for environmental health — for the sake of paper bags for shoppers' convenience.

Stores then would give shoppers a choice: "Paper or plastic?"

The popularity of the latter saw plastic bags replace paper— and we now know, from ocean pollution, how that turned out. Now that recycling technology has improved, paper bags, often made with recycled paper themselves, are popular again.

Gaining even more popularity, are reusable bags that are made from recycled paper — like the limited edition Mountain Apple Brand Washable Paper Bag offered for online purchase at shop.ktasuperstores.com

One consumer responsibility that has remained constant, is to be responsible with our waste and make sure it doesn't accidentally become litter. We're often told, "malama ka 'aina," and one way to do that is to make sure trash that we throw away, whether in plastic bags or paper bags, is disposed of in a proper receptacle where it won't blow around and become litter.
